ORAL JUDGMENT

1. Rule. So far as Special Civil Application Nos.24606 to 24608 of 2005 are concerned, Shri

H.M.Prachchhak, learned AGP waives service of Rule on behalf of the respondents as as such these petitions are one page petitions related to Special Civil Application No.5185 of 2004. With the consent of the learned advocates for the parties, all these petitions are being disposed of today by this common judgment and order.

2. In these petitions under Articles 226 and 227 of the Constitution of India, the respective petitioners have challenged the legality and validity of the orders passed by the Deputy Collector, Stamp Duty Valuation, Ahmedabad dated 3.10.2002 and 24.9.2001 passed under Section 32(A) of the Bombay Stamp Act by which the respective petitioners are directed to pay deficit stamp duty of Rs.1,33,720/- plus Rs.250/- by way of penalty and further penalty of Rs.500/- under Rule-9 of the Rules in all Rs.1,34,470/- with regard to the documents No.2032, 2033, 2034 and 2035 executed and presented before the Sub-Registrar, Ahmedabad dated 16.5.2000.

3. Shri K.V.Shelat, learned advocate appearing on behalf of the respective petitioners has vehemently submitted that the impugned orders dated 3.10.2002 are contrary to the provisions of Rule-4 of the Bombay Stamp (Determination of Market Value of Property) Rules; 1984 and as such, no particulars and/or reasons are given by the authority for determining the valuation of the property in question at Rs.13,62,170/-. It is also further submitted that as such the impugned orders came to be passed on the basis of the notice under Rule-4 of Rules; 1984 by which the petitioners were called upon to prove that the valuation of the property/land in question is at Rs.25,000/-. He has relied upon the judgment of this Court in case of Budhabhai Merabhai Bharwad V. State of Gujarat reported in (2005) 8 GHJ Page-374 : 2005 (2) GLR 1792. The learned advocate for the petitioners has also placed reliance on another decision of the learned Single Judge of this Court rendered in case of PRADHYUMANBHAI MOHANLAL PATEL V. STATE OF GUJARAT & ORS. Reported in 2003 (1) GLR 454, wherein it is held that when the Chief Revenue and Controlling Authority passed an order in cyclostyled form wherein some gaps were filled up and few sentences were added, it is an order passed without proper application of mind and not speaking order and the same cannot be sustained in eye of law.

4. Shri H.M.Prachchhak, learned AGP appearing on behalf of the respondents is not in a position to dispute that in the impugned orders dated 3.10.2002 no particulars are given that on what basis the Deputy Collector has come to the conclusion that the valuation of the property in question is at Rs.13,62,170/-. The learned AGP for the Authorities is also not in a position to dispute that as such the controversy in question is directly covered by the judgment of this Court in case of Budhabhai Merabhai Bharwad and another decision PRADHYUMANBHAI MOHANLAL PATEL V. STATE OF GUJARAT & ORS.(supra). However, the learned AGP has submitted that the valuation of the property in question is fixed on the basis of the Jantri.

5. Heard the learned advocates appearing on behalf of the parties.

6. I have gone through the order passed by the Deputy Collector. In the impugned order, no particulars and/or basis have been mentioned by the Deputy Collector that on what basis, he has come to the conclusion that the valuation of the property in question is at Rs.13,62,170/-. Nothing is on record to suggest that the respective petitioners have been served with any material relied upon by the Deputy Collector, if any, for ascertaining and/or fixing the valuation of the property in question at Rs.13,62,170/- It also prima-facie appears that even the impugned order has been passed on the basis of the notice issued under Rule-4 of the aforesaid Rules and by which the respective petitioners were called upon to prove that the valuation of the property is at Rs.25,000/- and no more. This Court has remanded the matter to the Deputy Collector for deciding the same afresh after issuing proper notice under Rule-4 of Rules 1984 and after giving an opportunity to the petitioner and after providing the material upon which the Deputy Collector wants to rely to determine the valuation of the property in question.

6. For the reasons stated above and for the reasons stated in the judgment of this Court in case of BHUDHABHAI MERABHAI BHARWAD and another decision PRADHYUMANBHAI MOHANLAL PATEL V. STATE OF GUJARAT & ORS.(supra), all these petitions are allowed partly. The impugned orders passed by the Deputy Collector, Stamp Duty Valuation, Ahmedabad dated 3.10.2002 are hereby quashed and set aside and the matters are remanded to the Deputy Collector, Stamp Duty Valuation, Ahmedabad for deciding the same afresh in accordance with law and on merits and after issuing proper notice under Rule-4 of the Rules of 1984 and after giving an opportunity to the respective petitioners and after supplying necessary material to the petitioners upon which the Deputy Collector proposes to rely while determining and/or ascertaining the valuation of the land in question. The said exercise to be done within a period of 6 (six) months from today. It is, however, made clear that if any amount is already paid/deposited by the respective petitioners pursuant to the orders passed by the Deputy Collector, Stamp Duty Valuation, Ahmedabad dated 3.10.2002 then in that case, the respondents are not required to refund the said amount at this stage and the same would be subject to the ultimate outcome of the proceedings on remand and the said amount be adjusted on the basis of the order that may be passed by the Deputy Collector.

7. Rule is made absolute to the aforesaid extent in each matter of this group. However, there will be no order as to costs.

Direct Service is permitted.
